Selection for the State 4-H Livestock Judging Team:

The top 25% in individual scores will be invited to participate in tryouts and training to result in the selection of the state 4-H team to represent Ohio at the national contest. Also, any member who has represented Ohio in an invitational contest only as a contestant on a county team and is otherwise eligible for the national contest will be invited to the training and tryouts. This team will compete at the National 4-H Livestock Judging Contest in Louisville, KY in November.

Top 3 Senior Teams Overall:

The three highest scoring Senior teams will be invited to represent Ohio at 3 separate invitational contests. Only one trip will be awarded per county. The first place team will have first choice of the following contests: American Royal in Kansas City, MO in October; Eastern National Judging Contest, Timonium, MD in September; and Virginia Tech Judging Contest in Blackburg, VA in October.
